Student scores rise sharply

By JEFF BROWN

The State Student Assessment Test scores for Glades students, considerably below the district average four years ago, are now close to that average in most test sections, according to results released late last week by the school board.

"I'm very pleased with the progress of the Glades high schools," said West Area Superintendent John M. Munroe. "The faculty and administration of the schools deserve the credit."

When the first SSAT scores were released in 1977, the Glades scores were between 24 and 39 percent lower in each particular section than the district average.

This year, the test results reveal Glades scores consistent with the district average, usually within a few percentage points and in some cases higher than the average.

The SSATs are given in two parts to tenth grade students. Until April of this year, they were given to 11th graders in October.

Part one, consisting of mathematics, reading, and writing sections, must be passed by a student in order to qualify for graduation.

A student who fails the test the first time has four more opportunities to pass it, according to Munroe.

In the mathematics section of part one, Glades

One man died in this accident at 20 Mile Bend last week.

1 dead in 20-mile bend crash

PAHOKEE - A Palm Beach Gardens man died as a result of an accident at 20 Mile Bend Thursday, June 3, according to the Florida Highway Patrol.

Matthew P. Marcus, 56, of Palm Beach Gardens, died at Good Samaritan Hospital in West Palm Beach of injuries inflicted in a three vehicle accident about 15 1/4 miles east of Belle Glade on State Road 80.

According to the Florida Highway Patrol reports, Marcus was travelling west on 80 when he left the lane and struck the eastbound pick-up driven by Pedro Rodriguez, 40, of Moore Haven, and Winnebago motor home driven by David R. Hockett, 23, of Massachusetts.

The Rodriguez vehicle left the road and flipped and the Hockett vehicle struck a bridge. The Marcus automobile then hit the bridge also.

Rodriguez, Hockett and three passengers in the Hockett vehicle were treated at the scene.

Jack Redding to stay on another year

PAHOKEE - Jack L. Redding, who was scheduled to retire from his post as principal at Pahokee High School this year, has not rescinded his earlier decision and will stay on, it was announced by Sam Lovell, the Glades area school board representative.

Redding said he will probably stay on as principal for a couple more years before retiring.

He has eight and a half years as principal and said he prefers that position to the term he served as West Area Superintendent.

"I like being a school principal more than a superintendent," he said. "I like the kids."

JACK REDDING

The official announcement Friday night, June 4, before about 900 people at the Pahokee High School graduation, brought the crowd to a standing ovation.

Redding has been principal of the school since 1972, except for a year and half in 1980 and 1981 when he served as West Area Superintendent.

Redding said he decided to postpone his retirement at the urging of several people, including teachers.

"Some people wanted me to stay on,"

Student excels despite family tragedy

By ALMA HENRY

BELLE GLADE-Faced with an unexpected tragedy, the death of his mother during his senior year in high school, Karl Cushman showed his emotional strength by graduating as one of the top graduates of the Class of 1982 at Glades Central High School. He also is one of the most celebrated students to walk through the hall of Glades Central.

An engineering major heading to the University of Florida on June 22, Cushman will join Glades Central 1981 Valedictorian Thomas Lockett as one of a small number of minorities enrolled in the engineering program at UF.

Also like Thomas, Cushman is the recipient of a scholarship for $3,000 from South Bay Growers. Vice-President/General Manager Frank Teets said the scholarship is renewable for three years as long as Cushman is enrolled in an accredited institution.

A modest young man, Cushman is somewhat reluctant to talk of the many honors he has received.

He was part of the Palm Beach County National Academic Games team which finished second in the nation.

At the Academic Awards banquet held at Glades Central High School on June 2, he was awarded the Principal's Awards by Dr. Effie C. Grear.

During Senior Class Night he received the Math and Social Studies Awards. He was the recipient of the Band Outstanding Ensemble Performance Award given by Willie Pyfrom and was named to Who's Who in Music Among American High School Students.

He also was named the Student of the Year by the Iota Omicron Zeta Chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

Karl resides with father, Edward Cushman.

Hurricane Alberto fizzles

The first hurricane of the season had virtually no effect on the Glades, according to officials at the South Florida Water Management District. Alberto, which fizzled out and veered clear of the south Florida coast, had virtually no effect other than to continue the wet pattern established by 12 previous consecutive days of rain.

That pattern had already seen the district lower the water level in canals to handle any potential flooding, so when the hurricane watch was posted Thursday, the canals were already low, according to Sheila Middaugh, director of public information at SFWMD.

According to Middaugh, the level of Lake Okeechobee Thursday, June 3, was 11.63 feet. It had risen to 11.82 by Monday, June 8.

Most of the precautionary measures taken were taken along the coastal regions, she added.

Fire hydrants get attention

PAHOKEE - Pahokee fire hydrants need attention ranging from repair to replacement if the fire department is to be expected to fight fires adequately, according to Assistant Fire Chief Dan Sanders.

Sanders told the city council Tuesday night, June 8, that many of the hydrants have not flowed in over six months and may have become frozen. They are supposed to be flowed every six months at which time the pressure will be checked and the caps greased.

Sanders also said that on many hydrants the attachment for larger sized hoses cannot be used because of cement blocks placed around them to prevent automobiles from running over the hydrants. Those blocks must be moved before a hose could be attached, using precious time in the event of a fire, he said.

Other hydrants are sitting at angles and couplers must be dug out before a hose can be attached.

PLANNED PARENTHOOD RECEIVES DONATION -- Kathy Cottle, left, and Anita Adams display a plaque received from the Bethesda By the Sea Church.

BELLE GLADE--The Glades branch of Planned Parenthood recently received a $3,000 grant from Bethesda By-the-Sea Church in Palm Beach to help assist with the center's operating expenses, according to Kathy Cottle, Glades branch director. The gift will be used to expand the medical, educational counseling and referral services offered by the clinic to persons living in Western Palm Beach County. A. Park Bryant, senior warden emeritus and a member of the church's outreach committee, said the committee likes to involve itself in worthy causes and has found the clinic, "a most meritorious project." The Belle Glade Center opened in 1978 and is a branch of the Planned Parenthood of the Palm Beach Area Inc. The agency presently offers Glades residents pregnancy testing and counseling, gynecological exams, venereal disease and cancer screening, contraceptive methods and classes in childbirth preparation for pregnant teenagers. The center is located at 141 NW Second St., Belle Glade.

Clean-up campaign gains support

PAHOKEE -- The clean-up efforts of a Pahokee civic club may have gained the support and teeth of the city government.

Lion's Club representatives Rob Tillier and J.S. Atkin asked the city council Tuesday, June 8, for support in their efforts to beautify the city.

The council members, which balked at the proposal at first, claiming that the city had no authority other than condemnation to improve or remove blighted structures, were informed that replacement housing is available at the Pahokee Housing Authority and Pee Hoke Apartments.

The authority, an independent government agency, and Pee Hoke Apartments, owned by Hatton Properties, are required by federal regulation to make space available for replacement housing as the space becomes available, according to J. Ray Hatton II.

Both units were built through federal funding. Pahokee Building Inspector Phelix Slonaker said the city has already used that route to condemn buildings.

The council later ordered Slonaker to put together a list of all the buildings he had condemned or issued warnings or citations for in the past six months.

A workshop session was scheduled between the council and a five member steering committee from the Lion's Club for June 15.

Tillier had presented the council with photographs of blighted areas in Pahokee as part of the Club's argument for support.

Atkin told the group that the Lion's Club was willing to do something about the problem, but needed city support.

"We can't do it without your cooperation," said Atkin. "You're gonna have to be the leader because you're the ones with the rules and regulations."

One Lion in attendance suggested that the city and club may not be able to do much about the inside of many buildings, but could work on the exterior.

"You can't make people cut their grass," said Councilman William E. McKinstry.

Atkins argued that the program may help people "get some of their pride back."

"I for one am all for it," said Councilwoman Ada Bush.

This is the first time since I've been up here that I've seen anyone concerned about it or talking about doing something," said Councilman George Tillier.

Tillier expressed surprise at the blight he said he encountered in a survey of the city.

"Really, to be honest, it didn't really surprise you all that much," said McKinstry. "As long as you've been here."

Attorney warns of possible violation

PAHOKEE -- Pahokee Housing Authority Attorney Michael told the authority's board of commissioners Tuesday, June 8, that South Florida Sanitation may have committed two franchise violations in servicing the authority between 1972 and 1981.

He said the rate increase in November 1981 may not have been valid under the franchise agreement with the county, and that the company was obligated to pick up trash twice a week between 1972 and January 1982.

Executive Director Randall J. Mills said the company had never picked up trash for the authority and added that he knew of no instances where it picked up trash twice a week outside of the authority.

The franchise agreement between the county and company allegedly obligates the franchise to yard trash removal twice per week, according to Stauder.

Stauder said he would not recommend the authority sue the company for violating the franchise because it may cause them to open a law suit against them for breach of franchise in regard to the authority decision to collect its own garbage.

The authority decided to collect its own garbage after the rate increase of November 1981. Mills disagreed with Stauder, saying "I feel we're right in both instances."

The authority commission claim they have a right to collect their own garbage under a provision exempting municipalities and governmental agencies from the franchise.

Stauder also said that the company may argue that the authority knew they weren't getting trash service because of a contract dating to 1971 in which trash service was not provided.

Mills argued that that contract was not renewed and the authority came under the franchise agreement of 1972 when it came into effect.

In other business, Pahokee Mayor Duncan Padgett sent a letter to Commission Chairman Mead Maxwell informing him that the city has cancelled the sewage and water contract with Canal Point in an attempt to get the contracts lined up and expiring on the same date.

Robbery suspect apprehended

BELLE GLADE — A stolen vehicle and an alert Pahokee police officer combined to help in the apprehension of an armed robbery suspect this weekend, according to a Belle Glade Police Department report.

Manuel DePerez, 30, of 725 1/2 East Main Street in Pahokee, is in custody under $25,000 bond and facing charges of armed robbery, grand theft and two counts of aggravated assault in connection with a Sunday evening armed robbery of a Belle Glade convenience store.

Two other Pahokee men were arrested with DePerez and are facing charges of burglary and grand theft auto: Rodolfo Guevara, 31, and Rafael Guevara, 36, also of 725 1/2 East Main Street.

According to the Belle Glade Police report, two armed white males held up the Time Save food store located at 301 North Main Street at about 9:30 p.m. Sunday, June 6.

One of the two allegedly forced several customers to lie face down on the floor while the other had the clerk empty the contents of the cash register into a paper bag. An undetermined amount of money was taken. Both gunmen fled on foot through an adjacent parking lot. About four and a half hours later at a truck stop just north of the Palm Beach County line on US 27, a sheriff's deputy, Robert Champion, recovered a vehicle reported stolen by the Pahokee Police Department and took the vehicle and its three occupants back to Pahokee.

Pahokee Police Officer Gary Burroughs recognized one of the three from descriptions the Belle Glade Police had released of the suspects in the Time Saver armed robbery. All three were transferred to Belle Glade and the Belle Glade Police conducted a lineup.

According to the report, several eyewitnesses identified DePerez as one of the armed robbers.

A search of the vehicle uncovered a gun wrapped in a towel and hidden near the radiator, according to Inspector Mike Miller of the Belle Glade Police Department.

According to police, all three men were free on bond from a burglary of a Pahokee convenience store several weeks earlier.

They are also believed to be Mariel refugees, according to police.

Test scores

Central was one of two schools in the Palm Beach County School District to improve its composite scores.

Glades Central composite score rose 15 points in the math section, a district high. Last year, the Glades Central composite score was 67 compared to 82 this April.

Pahokee High School experienced a drop of two percent in the math section, from 83 to 81, but is still above the district average of 79 percent.

In October 1977, GCHS had a composite of 47 percent and Pahokee a composite of 46 percent in the math section.

In the writing section of part one, Pahokee scored 85 percent this year, compared to 80 percent in 1981.

Glades Central scored 77 percent in the April 1982 tests versus 69 percent in October 1981. The eight percent leap was the highest increase in the math section.

Glades Central scored 46 percent and Pahokee 50 percent in 1977 in that section.

The district average in the writing section is 83 percent.

In the reading section of part one, Glades Central raised its composite score of 66 percent in October 1981 to 73 percent in April 1982. Pahokee dropped from 79 to 78 percent. The district average is 87 percent.

In October 1977, Glades Central students averaged 82 percent on the reading section. In Pahokee, the average level was 61 percent in 1977.

Part one consists of concepts the student must master to earn the high school diploma, according to Munroe. Part two tests the students' ability to apply those concepts to everyday, practical situations.

SSAT II also identifies problem areas where students may need extra help. Each part of SSAT II must be mastered before a diploma can be awarded.

The SSAT II is divided into two parts, Mathematics and Communication, and is measured in percent passing.

Pahokee and Glades Central each experienced dramatic jumps in the percentage of students passing the mathematics portion.

In April 1981, 34 percent of the Pahokee students and 38 percent of the Glades Central students passed the section.

Fifty-eight percent of the Pahokee students and 61 percent of the Glades Central students passed the test this April.

In October 1977, 22 percent of the Glades Central students and 28 percent of the Pahokee students passed the test.

The district average is 74 percent.

Only two other schools in the district experienced increases in the percentage of students passing the math section this year.

In the communication portion of the SSAT II, Pahokee and Glades Central were two of the four schools which saw an increase in the percentage of students passing.

Ninety-five percent of the Pahokee students passed, a nine percent increase over last year.

Munroe attributed most of the improvement in Glades schools scores to programs instituted by both high schools, including an extra 30 minutes of instruction per day at each school. The students are tutored in the skills and concepts tested in the SSATs at those periods, according to Munroe.

Munroe also pointed to a program at Pahokee High School in which Principal Jack L. Redding identified "Master Teachers," which taught special courses to prepare students for the SSATs.

A similar program has been instituted at Glades Central, he said.

Some form of special instruction will be continued in the future, he said.

"Of course, we'd like to do better," said Munroe.

Munroe also said he was disappointed that the district didn't improve at the same rate. Most schools in the district remained at the same level as previous years or experienced a decrease in scores.

"I'm sorry that we didn't show as much improvement at the district level," said Munroe.

tached.

Sanders, who has been with the Pahokee Fire Department since November, said he should have flowed the hydrants since then, but that a manpower shortage has prevented him from doing so.

He said he has flowed a few and that in one case, a cap busted because it was frozen.

Bill Cross, Pahokee Director of Utilities, agreed that the hydrants are in bad condition and should receive attention.

Councilman Ronnie Graydon said he will be talking with Sanders and Phillips to examine the situation.

The council also overturned a two year ordinance concerning municipal election campaigns.

City Attorney Michael Stauder recommended the ordinance be overturned because it was informed by the State Attorney General's office that it was unconstitutional and the state had a received a report of an alleged election law violation.

According to a letter Stauder sent to Council Chairman Jon C. Mock, the city had received a complaint that a statute restricting campaigning on election day from within 100 yards of the polls was violated.

Stauder had met with an assistant state attorney and provided him with a copy of the 1980 Pahokee ordinance allowing campaigns to be conducted to within 35 feet of the polls on election day.

The letter to Mock states that Stauder was informed that the State Attorney's office believed the ordinance was invalid.

According to Stauder, the city had passed the ordinance in 1980 when a similar campaign was filed. The city had determined that state laws were applicable only where no local ordinances existed in the election code, and passed the 35 foot limit in order to "preserve some of the tradition established in the city."

Stauder said the city had two options in the matter: repeal the ordinance or find a volunteer to fight it in court.

"I don't think it would be wise to have someone volunteer and say 'Let's go fight it,' because then if you fought it and lost you have an arrest record."

The city council unanimously overturned the ordinance.

Perspective

What we call real progress

The State Student Assessment Test results released late last week are proof of the tremendous progress Glades schools have made in educating local youth.

Glades schools just five years ago scored lower than any other school in the county. This year, their scores are within several points of the district average and in several cases above it.

The area's administration and teaching staffs deserve the credit. Their added commitment and effort have brought Glades education up to district levels.

Education is important and if students are not able to function at the average level of others in their region, their life can only be made difficult.

We commend the West Area administration and faculty for their efforts and hope you continue your commitment to the education of the young.

Stiffer DWI penalty welcome

When July 1 rolls around, stiffer penalties for driving under the influence become law.

We applaud the stiffer sanctions, which call for 1. Higher fines, 2. Mandatory jail sentences for repeat offenders, and 3. Public service work for first-time offenders.

There are too many drunks driving and causing accidents.

The new law may not get all of the drunks off the road, but maybe it will give them pause to think about their actions first.

And when repeat offenders are arrested, they can expect to spend 30 or more days in jail.

It is deplorable that there is a need for more stringent penalties against driving under the influence.

We have to face the fact that the problem is serious, however, and be pleased that something is being done to alleviate it.

A two-day conference to appraise the economic future of South-Central Florida was called for Clewiston by the Florida State Chamber of Commerce.

Ten authorities in the fields of agriculture, education, transportation, industry, community development and water conservation were to evaluate the area from Martin County to Dade County, from coast to coast.

A total of 35 of 84 Belle Glade seniors were given special recognition with awards presented by Principal Pelon Morris during graduation ceremonies.

Belle Glade's American Legion Auxiliary received a number of citations for work in child welfare, rehabilitation and membership.

George Riddle headed the slate of new Jaycee officers installed by Frank H. Foster Jr., vice president of the state organization.

Other officers installed included Tony Woodham, Richard Mole and Bill Burke.

Torrential rainfalls totalling 12.31 inches in seven days ended the local vegetable season.

Of that, 6.96 inches fell in one 24-hour period which ended, "an unusually satisfactory season."

A situation unique at that time developed when four carloads of beans were shipped from North Carolina to Belle Glade.

Another 30 to 40 carloads were expected in the near future in a coal-to-Newcastle attempt to make up for a shortage in the Glades bean crop.

Emergency levees with built-in bypasses were proposed by the Central and South Florida Water Management District to increase the safety of the area from Canal Point to South Bay.

The levee and bypasses were to be constructed along the West Palm Beach Canal at 20 Mile Bend along Levee L-8 and Structure S-5.

The Glades Rice Growers Cooperative, planning to let a contract for a plant on July 1, contacted the Bank for Cooperatives of Columbia (S.C.) in an attempt to get financing.

Cooperative President I.L. Price was among those attending a conference in Houston, Tex. to end a trip through the nation's rice-growing region.

The plant included a dryer, mill and storage facilities to handle the grain from more than 2,000 acres expected to be planted in rice.

Louie and Jerry Gold announced the opening of the Glades Drive-In Theater on U.S. 441 just north of Belle Glade.

The city building department announced a total of $63,036 worth of building permits issued in the month of May.

BOILER PLATE

Mosquitoes

The real Florida of mosquitoes the size of helicopters, of rain that falls like confetti at a hero's parade, and of heat that makes you yearn for winter is back.

It is the mosquito that best symbolizes Florida summers.

Sometimes I wonder what those airplanes are spraying that make mosquitoes so healthy.

To understand the meaning of proliferation, just stand in an mosquito-infested area, wearing a bikini or your tennis shorts for a few minutes. The meaning soon becomes clear.

I read somewhere that although the mosquito can be dangerous and a nuisance, it is a beautiful insect.

I suppose that enlightened bit of deduction comes from the swept-back look of the mosquito's legs as it feeds, or perhaps the functional blueprint of the beast.

This master plans enables the mosquito to be as efficient as the great white shark in a totally different environment. But it could always be worse. Just be grateful that mosquitoes aren't any bigger than they are.

Personally, I have to concentrate real hard to see beauty in something that is trying to tap into my life blood.

I saw a close-up picture of a mosquito the other day and take my word for it, mosquitoes are ugly. They have these round tubes growing out of their heads and look like something straight out of a bad dream.

They tell me that only the female mosquito bites humans and other warm blooded things. I haven't stumbled across the food source for the males yet, but thank them anyway from the bottom of my heart for eating whatever else it is they eat.

What aggravates me most about mosquitoes is their habit of droning in my ear while I'm trying to sleep.

Humans, unable to see as well in the dark as say a bat or an owl, can only slap at the droning noise. The slapping always misses. Even pulling a sheet over the head doesn't seem to help. It seems like the varmints have tucked themselves in bed along with their unwilling human victim.

So it seems that the mosquito is along for the ride for as long as he wants to be. If anything, we are losing ground in the fight against this pest.

It's a safe bet that whenever Florida summers roll around in the future, mosquitoes will continue to be part of the tropical scenery.

400 seniors receive diplomas

PAHOKEE - "I hope you'll excuse the informality of this occasion," said Principal Jack L. Redding to the crowd of about 800 people gathered to watch the Pahokee High School graduating class of 1982 accept their diplomas. "But this is their night and, after all, we already had ours."

A hundred and five students were awarded diplomas while the enthusiastic crowd cheered them on in the high school gymnasium Friday, June 4.

Sam Lovell, the district representative on the Palm Beach County School Board, handed each student his or her diploma. Afterward, Lovell announced that Redding, who was scheduled to retire after this year, had agreed to delay his retirement for a year.

Jasmine R. Benjamin delivered the Valedictory Address and Randy C. Sweat gave the Salutatory Address.

Ollice Davis, Jr., directed the high school band in a program which included "Forward March," "Swing Bolero," "Elmira," "Jamaican Rumba" and "Gypsy Holiday."

The Pahokee High School Chorus presented renditions of "Give Me Jesus" and "A Praying Spirit." Inger Brown sang solo on "A Praying Spirit."

Norma R. Williams delivered the invocation and Kenneth L. Smith delivered the benediction.

BELLE GLADE - Approximately 250 students received their high school diplomas from Dr. John Munroe, West Area Superintendent, at the Eleventh Commencement Exercises of Glades Central Community School.

Dr. Effie C. Gear told the Class of 1982 they are perhaps the "most talented" to graduate from the local high school. The first class to graduate from Glades Central was in 1971 when Lake Shore High School and Belle Glade High School merged.

The salutatorian of the class, Karl Cushnie, gave the welcome address to more than 1,500 parents, relatives, and friends of the class of 1982.

Miss Lucritia Kight, 1982 Students Council President, gave senior reflections.

Miss Kight said the class came to Glades Central as freshmen with "mixed emotions".

The musical duo, Willie Lawrence and Lena Dukes and the Glades Central Chorus gave a command performance of "It's So Hard To Leave You." By the time the chorus had finished the number, the graduating class found themselves releasing tears of sadness and happiness.

Valedictorian Elaine Smith gave the farewell address.

Miss Smith told her fellow classmates she expected each to go out and do great things and make the Glades Central family proud of them.

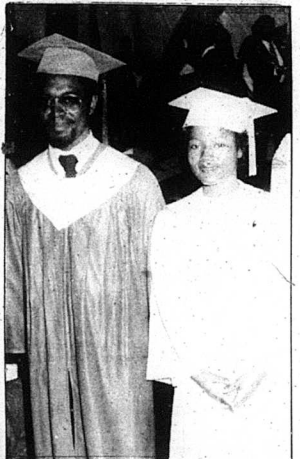

The Glades Central Band, under the leadership of Willie Pyfrom, presented a pre-commencement concert and during the graduation exercise performed "The Impossible Dream" by Derin.

Father Joseph Santa-Bibiana of the St. Philip Benizi Catholic Church gave the invocation and Dr. Gear presented the class of 1982.

The class of 1982 gave thunderous applause to senior Vinette M. Morris who walked on crutches to receive her diploma and as Mrs. Rennick Morris accepted Oral G. Morris diploma from Dr. Monroe. The Morrises were injured in an automobile accident on May 31. Oral was still confined to the hospital the night of graduation.

Honor graduates of the Class were Beverly Tucker, Sylvia Navarro, John Mooney, Barbara Bulgin, Jacqueline Berry, Letrece Grenwell, Suzette Blake, Joyce Clark, Regina Grenwell, Darren Edgecomb, Elaine Smith and Karl Cushnie.

Mary Kirchman graduated with high achievement.

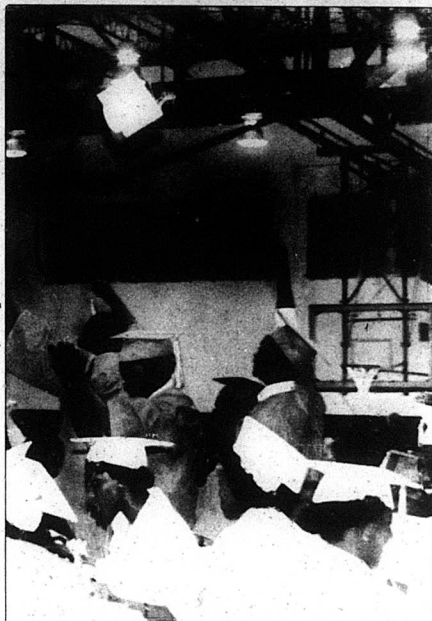

KARL CUSHNIE and Elaine Smith were the top graduates at GCCH.

Theo's comes back in sixth to beat Quaker Oats 7-6

By JEFF BROWN
BELLE GLADE -- Theo's, down 5-0 to Quaker Oats after two innings, came back with a strong sixth inning to win the game 7-6, Monday, June 7.

Quaker Oats opened the game with a single from lead off batter Dexter Kearse.

Johnny Sprouse, the number two hitter in the Quaker Oat line-up, knocked the ball to right center to put runners at first and second.

Mel Lumpkin knocked in Kearse a single to right center, advancing Sprouse to second.

Clean-up hitter Jimmy Wisper's fly out to David Pelham in left advanced the runners to second and third.

Jack Scott, batting with one out and two runners in scoring position, picked up his only RBI of the night with a two-base knock to left field, scoring Sprouse.

Theo's finally got out of the inning when pitcher John Pelham fielded a grounder off the bat of Roger Jones. The first baseman made the turn after getting the force and Kenny Williams applied the tag at the plate for two.

Bill Wyatt, pitching for Quaker Oats, exhibited near perfect control of the game through four innings, walking one and giving up no hits through three. He allowed two hits in the fourth, but didn't give up his shut-out until late in the game.

In the first, Theo's stranded David Pelham at first after he was issued a one out walk. Pelham was the only Theo's baserunner in the first three innings.

In the top of the second, Quaker Oats added three more runs on four hits and the game had all the appearances of a laffer.

Terry Hess opened with a single to right field.

He was followed by Luis Oliver, who sent one into left to put runners at first and second.

Don Tomassak loaded the bases with a shallow single to center. Wyatt reached first on a fielders choice which saw Hess get tagged out at the plate.

Sprouse didn't let the threat die, though. He hit a ball to deep right field and when the dust cleared, he was standing at third with a triple and three runs batted in.

Lumpkin followed with a ground-out to end the inning.

The pitchers and fielders settled down and the bats were fairly silent on both sides for a couple innings, Quaker Oats picking up hits in the third and fourth and Theo's two in the fourth.

Pelham settled down and the Theo's fielding helped him retire the side in the fifth and sixth innings, giving Theo's bats a chance to work on the Quaker Oats' lead.

In the Theo's half of the fifth, shortstop Jimmy Hager led off with a double to right center.

Scott Parris flew to right to advance Hager to third. Pete Sanchez's ground out to shortstop Sprouse scored Hager and Theo's was on the scoreboard.

Ken Williams and Ervin Collier hit back to back singles to put runners at first and second, but Tracy Martin flew to right to end the inning.

In the bottom of the sixth, Quaker Oats took the field with a comfortable 5-1 lead. When they left the field, they were down 7-5 and had one inning to close the gap.

Theo's opened their half of the sixth with six consecutive singles off the bats of David Pelham, Tim Martin, Torres, Robert Ellis, Hager and Parris.

Robert Ellis, pinch hitting with the bases loaded and nobody out, connected with the first pitch he saw from Wyatt to drive in a run.

Hager also singled to drive in a run and Theo's had something going.

Parris singled to the left field corner and Pete Sanchez followed with a sacrifice to right field to put Theo's to within one, 4-5.

Ken Williams' sacrifice to left tied the game and Ervin Collier put Theo's up by two with a two RBI double up the middle.

In the seventh, Quaker Oats tried to comeback but fell short.

Oliver opened with a single but a fielder's choice and two outs run down, a runner at third and two outs, but a grounder to second was easily played for the final out of the ball game.

In city league play last week, six games were played Thursday, June 3.

Glades Sugar went down in defeat the first time this season when they were edged by Carter Chevrolet 9-2. Glades Sugar went on to beat Bobby Conipe, 14-2.

Carter Chevrolet lost to the All Stars, 10-12 later that evening.

In B Division games, Everglades Farm Equipment shut-out Seminole Supply 16-0.

This week, the league will be attempting to make up two weeks of rainouts in four days, according to Mike Underwood, Recreation Department coordinator.

Duda defeated Theo's 10-4 and Everglades Farm Equipment beat Theo's 4-1.

Players of the Week

BELLE GLADE -- Two outfielders led their teams through a rain-drenched week to capture the Players of the Week honors.

Three games apiece were played on the fields at Airport Park Thursday, June 3, and games were scheduled to be played every night Monday through Thursday to make up for rain outs, according to Mike Underwood, the city recreation department coordinator.

In the A Division, Glades Sugar finally suffered its first loss of the season when Carter Chevrolet edged them 3-2. The loss broke the Glades Sugar five game winning streak.

Rigo Ruiz, an outfielder with Carter Chevrolet, led the way for his team by picking up two hits for every three at bats. One of his singles batted in the game winning run.

Later that night, he again went two for three, picking up another pair of singles and batting in a run.

The B Division Player of the Week is Timmy Laster, who picked up five hits in two games and eight at bats.

The Everglades Farm Equipment left-fielder scored six runs and batted in three, including the winning run against Theo's.

His two doubles and three singles helped the team to victories over Theo's and the Seminole Supply Oldtimers.

Those victories put E.F.E. and Seminole Supply in a dead heat for first place in the B Division.

CLEWISTON SKATE CENTER was the first place team in the Roadrunner Bowling League. Team members include (left) Yvonne Savoie, Louise Swindle and Mary Lou Sherman.

BELLE GLADE—The Episcopal Church of St. John the Apostle has scheduled Family Evening Bible School classes Monday, June 14 through Friday, June 18, according to Reverend Charles Farrar, the rector of the church.

The classes are scheduled to begin at 6:15 each night. Belle Glade Mayor Thomas L. Altman will head an eight man kitchen squad, consisting of Bill Bailey, Bruce Miller, Rudy Parrado, Jerry Smith, Jim Threlkeld, Frank to Ann Lovell. "On Monday evening we'll meet the king, on Tuesday we'll visit his kingdom and so on," said Lovell, who wrote the children's curriculum. "The climax on Friday evening will be our participation in a great service of song and praise in which everyone renews his and her membership in the Covenant."

The nursery will be open each evening and games will be led by Deborah Altman, who will be assisted by Jeff Threlkeld, Herb Giese, Jill Wright and Helen Farrar. Daisy Butts and Jennie Threlkeld will staff the nursery. 'Each Family bring a Family'

By ALMA HENRY
BELLE GLADE-Area veterans having a hard time finding employment or needing career counseling may now seek help from two veteran assistance officers employed by the Florida State Employment Office.

Eddie Alston and Clayton Hahn, two Navy veterans, presently attending Palm Beach Junior College Glades Campus, will provide area veterans with career counseling, job development, and job placement services.

Alton said the two are also available to help veterans find out what benefits they are entitled to through the Veterans Administration Office. Hahn said most veterans are not aware of the benefits offered veterans by the VA office.

He said one of the biggest obstacles in finding jobs for qualified veterans is the nation's economy.

"Florida was one of the last states to feel the effects of the dragging economy, but the recovery in Florida will be slower than most other states too," said Hahn.

Alston said the key to the success of the program is an VA incentive program for employers to hire veterans.

Alton said employers can hire veterans at near minimum wages in an apprenticeship program, while the VA provides additional money for the veterans.

Alton said as the veteran gains experience in the apprenticeship, the VA monetary supplement will decrease as the wages from the employer increase. "As the veteran masters the job, the supplement gradually decreases until it's stopped," said Alton.

Alton said there are also tax credits available to employers of veterans.

Hahn said prospective employers who would like to participate in the program may contact the veterans assistance officer at the Florida State Employment Service office for additional information.

Hahn, who spent 20 years in Naval aviation, said jobs in the also are hard to come by because the Glades is an agricultural community and the agricultural season is basically over.

Among the jobs Hahn said are currently on file in the employment office are environmental control system installation serviceman, teacher's aide, employment interviewer and job developer.

Veterans may stop by the employment service office Monday through Friday, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., now until the end of July to see Hahn or Alton.

Alton said the Florida State Employment Service will take over the job once the work study program is over.

Alton, a pre-law major, said he has found that many businesses are unwilling to accept time served in the armed forces as experience.

"A lot of people have a world of training and experience, but feel because it was in the military it has no civilian application," said Hahn.

He said this is where career counseling comes in to help the veteran.

Hahn and Alston said they are here to help veterans find jobs and help area employers filled their positions with veterans with on-the-job training.

The Florida State Employment Service office is located on Northwest Avenue L and the telephone number is 996-3068.

City back in the market for a garbage truck

PAHOKEE - The Pahokee Housing Authority's offer to the city earlier this year to lease it its new garbage truck appeared to have died when the city council voted to decrease the $300 bid from the authority to $150 per month.

The authority's board of commissioners chose not to act on that offer and have since been operating the truck on their own, about eight or ten hours per week.

For all intents and purposes, the issue appeared to have died.

Now, however, the city is in the market for a garbage truck again. And some of the council members recall a pretty good deal offered not so long ago by the housing authority.

"That garbage truck proposal doesn't want to die, it seems."

Housing Authority Director Randall J. Mills told the authority's commissioners Tuesday, June 8, that he had been questioned about the status of the previous bid by four city council members.

Mills said he told the council members that the previous bid the authority made was never withdrawn, and he asked the commissioners if they wanted to withdraw it.

"If they are interested, I think they ought to come down our meeting and tell us 'We will accept your proposal and tell us 'We've gone on them every time.'"

Mills added that the commissioners should consider the life of truck before they decide to lease the truck to the city.

Earlier this year, the city had accepted a bid from the Pahokee Housing Authority proposing to lease its garbage truck to the city for 32 hours per week at $300 per month.

The city council voted a week later to pay no more than $150 per month, and the authority decided to take no action.

Mills claimed at the time that when the city lowered the $300 monthly fee to $150, it was changing one of the vital parts of the bid, and suggested the authority may not agree to the proposal.

Pahokee Chamber won't sponsor fireworks

PAHOKEE - The annual July 4 fireworks traditionally sponsored by the Pahokee Chamber of Commerce and Pahokee City government will be held despite the loss of one of the sponsors.

The Pahokee Chamber of Commerce, financially strapped because of the Pioneer Celebration in March and hesitant to ask local businesses to pick up the tab, voted Monday, June 7, not to contribute toward the city's annual fireworks display.

However, the city council Tuesday night, June 8, decided to contribute the money necessary to hold the fireworks display during Building Inspector Felix Slonaker said he knew an outside source willing to contribute any amount needed to meet the $2,000 tab.

Traditionally, the chamber and city council team up to present the fireworks display with $1,000 coming from city coffers and the rest, anywhere from $1,000 to $1,500, from the chamber.

The chamber would then beat the bushes to raise that amount from private donors such as member businesses.

According to Chamber President George Tillis, the chamber has a projected deficit of $1,600 to $2,000 already and, although he said he is confident that it will be made up before the end of the fiscal year, the chamber board of directors saw no reason to tack on an added burden of $1,500.

Local businesses and members of the chamber could not be expected to raise that amount to cover the cost because they'd already been hit up for donations to the 60th Birthday Celebration in March. The chamber is also expecting to solicit donations during the Shop-At-Home campaign in November.

In other business, the directors learned that a proposal which would have located the Chamber of Commerce in the Pahokee Museum in order to open the museum more regularly was rejected by the Pahokee Women's Club.

Survey seeks to determine national birth trends

How many children do married women expect to have within the next five years? Will they average the same number as in the recent past? Answers to these questions will help indicate the future growth and composition of the Nation's population, data vital to planners both in government and private business.

Forrest P. Cawley, Jr., Director of the Bureau's Regional Office in Atlanta, announced today that information on child care, number of children, and birth expectations of American women will be collected during the week of June 14-19, 1982, from a sample of households in this area. The questions are in addition to those usually asked in the monthly survey on employment and unemployment conducted nationwide by the Bureau for the U.S. Department of Labor.

Households in this area are part of the sample of 71,000 across the country scientifically selected to represent a cross section of all U.S. households.

Results of this monthly survey provide a continuing measure of economic conditions in the Nation. The April survey indicated that of the 109.6 million men and women in the civilian labor force, 99.3 million were employed. The Nation's unemployment rate was 9.4 percent.

the highest recorded in the post-World War II era. Information supplied by individuals participating in the survey is kept strictly confidential by law and the results are used only to compile statistical totals.

Interviewers who will visit households in the area include: Mrs. Selma Levitt, Mrs. Nancy Davis and Mrs. Diane Lupacka.

Computer technology helps match jobs, people

TALLAHASSEE—High-speed computer technology is being put to work by the State Employment Service in helping Florida employers find badly needed skilled workers. Secretary Wallace E. Orr of the Department of Labor and Employment Security said. The Florida State Employment Service is now part of the statewide CAPS (Cooperative Agency Placement System), an automated job placement system which matches available skilled workers with participating employers hiring areas. Over 600 occupational fields including tool and die making, aircraft mechanics, drafting, insurance underwriting and plumbing are requested in CAPS. Employers receive a listing of trained job seekers. The employer then contacts that individual on the list whom he is interested in hiring or he may have the State Employment Service do it for him. Employers can enroll for the no-charge CAPS placement service through the nearest FSSES Office. CAPS services are provided to employers through an inter-agency agreement between the Florida State Employment Service and the State Division of Vocational Education.

"Glades area employers should call (395) 996-3067 for further information."

3 students win essay

BELLE GLADE—Several Glades Central Community School students entered the West Palm Beach

Rotary Club's Essay Contest and three of the six county-wide winners came from the Glades.

The students had to write an essay on the topic, "How Can We As Palm Beach County Citizens Reduce Juvenile Crime?"

REV. JOE ED MCGAHEY

KEEPING THE FAITH

Spiritual power

"And all of them were filled with the Holy Spirit" Acts 2:4.

The disciples had been gathered together for ten days in a prayer meeting in the Upper Room. This is the place where Jesus had celebrated the Passover with the twelve, and then instituted the Lord's Supper the night before He was crucified. It is also the place where He appeared to the Apostles after the resurrection. After Jesus ascended into heaven, the disciples (about 120 of them) went back to the Upper Room to "wait". This was a time of prayer. They were waiting in expectation, believing God had a special gift for them, that would empower and enable them to do what Jesus told them they were to do.

Suddenly on the day of Pentecost (a Jewish feast day) it happened. "Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit enabled them." (Acts 2:2-4)

The Spirit of God came upon them in an unmistakable way. The disciples knew God's power had come upon them. All at once they had been empowered and equipped to do the job Jesus had assigned to them. That very day as those disciples went out into Jerusalem to explain what had happened they proclaimed Jesus. Peter, baptized by the Holy Spirit, preached a sermon about Jesus and that day there was added to the church 3,000 new believers.

The early church moved out into Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria and the rest of the world with the message of salvation through Jesus Christ. That was and is still the message of Christianity, but they went under the power and direction of the Holy Spirit.

Whenever people accepted salvation through Jesus Christ, the concern of the church was that they also receive the Holy Spirit. Acts 8, Philip went to Samaria and proclaimed Jesus and there were many miracles through the name of Jesus and many "signs and wonders." Then Peter and John went up and placed their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit. (Acts 8:17) Likewise when Paul discovered a group of new Christians in Ephesus, his first question was, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" After some teaching they too received the Holy Spirit.

One reason there are so many defeated Christians today is they have not received the power of God's Spirit to live out the Christian life. They accepted Jesus Christ, but they are trying to live the Christian life in their own power. The Holy Spirit is God's Presence to enable, equip, and guide us in living out our commitment to Jesus Christ.

Today we need this spiritual power as much as did the first century Christians. It is just as available today as it was then.

The significance of the 7th day

DR. DAVID T. EVANS

EVERGLADES PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sunday is no longer a holy day - just a holiday. It really has no significance for most Americans today. It is the day added on to Saturday to make a two day weekend, or a part of a three day weekend.

The most recognition given is by those who rush to church to put in their appearance before departing for a day of traveling, recreation and fun.

Sunday afternoon is the best day for professional sports - football, baseball, golf and tennis. Sunday night is high priced T.V. time.

Many people will say, "I can get closer to God when I am outside." This may be true but they do not actually speak to God, or even acknowledge Him.

The creation story in Genesis tells of God's resting on the seventh day. The fourth commandment reads as follows:

"Six days you shall labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is a sabbath of the Lord your God; you shall not do any work - you, your son or daughter, your male or female slave, or your cattle, or the stranger who is within your settlements. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth and sea, and all that is in them, and He rested on the seventh day; therefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day and hallowed it".

Thus the day became holy.

For many years the so-called "Blue Laws" controlled the commercial activities on Sunday, but for the most part these are either ineffective or inoperative. Most of us are glad because it would be most inconvenient to do without gasoline, meals, groceries, entertainment, drugs, etc. In fact, there are very few things which cannot be purchased on Sunday.

The only thing in recent years which was successful having to do with Sunday closing was the song "Never on Sunday". It was a song about a woman who didn't take lovers on Sunday. The song was a tremendous hit.

The Bible, which many think is outdated, says that man should rest on the seventh day, that he shouldn't be employed or work (except works of necessity and mercy), that his time should be taken up in public and personal worship of God. Times have changed but man still needs rest. He needs a change of pace and the body must be revitalized for the strenuous week ahead.

Even more important is the necessity of divine strength within us to face the strains and stresses of modern life.

Someone said, "I go to church because I need to get my battery charged for the week ahead".

Battery batteries for cars and trucks may have been perfected but the spiritual battery needs a weekly or even a daily charge.

The Church worship service gives us an opportunity to pay homage to the King of Kings and to gain fortification to withstand the evil which besets us from every side.

The seventh day as a rest day is physically sensible. It can be also for recreating our spiritual body. It can be a day of joyous communion with God, our family, and our friends.

God is air-wise and knows what is best for His children - you and me. Let us take seriously His command to rest and worship - not in a legalistic way but as a response to His love. Jesus, our Lord, worshipped regularly but He did not hesitate to help the needy on that day. Can we do less?

Write "Tattletales" through Goodson-Todman Productions, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028. If you're lucky maybe you'll get into the banana scene.

CRUSHED GRAPES — Has "Falcon Crest" been canceled. How can they "crush" it?

Dear host, the so-called grapes will still be growing on CBS this fall. It is getting a later in the season. Joan's character can always go on "Family Feud" with Ron, Nancy, Mike and Maureen.

QUADRUPEL QUERY — I have a question about the address for "Those Amazing Animals".

Write your furry friends in care of Bill Burrud Productions, 1100 S. La Brea, Los Angeles, CA 90013.

The 'ful' character who wears crazy clothes and curls and tries to do so many crazy and dramatic scenes. I've really enjoyed all of Nola's extended drama sequences where I've had the chance to sing and dance."

Lisa displayed a penchant for dancing and acting from an early age. Encouraged and influenced by her now 89-year-old grandmother, Jessie Curvah, who appeared on Broadway over 60 years ago, Lisa has been carving out her career since she was three. At 18 Lisa struck out on her own for New York, readily admitting, "I didn't know a whole lot about what I was doing. I just knew that I wanted to be here (in New York)."

KEEPING THE FAITH

"And all of them were filled with the Holy Spirit." Acts 2:4.

The disciples had been gathered together for ten days in a prayer meeting in the Upper Room. This is the place where Jesus had celebrated the Passover with the twelve, and then instituted the Lord's Supper the night before He was crucified. It is also the place where He appeared to the Apostles after the resurrection. After Jesus ascended into heaven, the disciples (about 120 of them) went back to the Upper Room to "wait." This was a time of prayer. They were waiting in expectation, believing God had a special gift for them, that would empower and enable them to do what Jesus told them they were to do.

Suddenly on the day of Pentecost (a Jewish feast day) it happened. "Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit enabled them." (Acts 2:2-4)

The Spirit of God came upon them in an un-mistaken way. The disciples knew God's power had come upon them. All at once they had been empowered and equipped to do the job Jesus had assigned to them. That very day as those disciples went out into Jerusalem to explain what had happened they proclaimed Jesus. Peter, baptized by the Holy Spirit, preached a sermon about Jesus and that day there was added to the church 3,000 new believers.

The early church moved out into Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria and the rest of the world with the message of salvation through Jesus Christ. That was and is still the message of Christianity, but they went under the power and direction of the Holy Spirit.

Whenever people accepted salvation through Jesus Christ, the concern of the church was that they also receive the Holy Spirit. Acts 8, Philip went to Samaria and proclaimed Jesus and there were many miracles through the name of Jesus and many "signs." Then Peter and John went up and placed their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit." (Acts 8:17) Likewise when Paul discovered a group of new Christians in Ephesus, his first question was, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" After some teaching they too received the Holy Spirit.

One reason there are so many defeated Christians today is they have not received the power of God's Spirit to live out the Christian life. They accepted Jesus Christ, but they are trying to live the Christian life in their own power. The Holy Spirit is God's Presence to enable, equip, and guide us in living out our commitment to Jesus Christ.

Today we need this spiritual power as much as did the first century Christians. It is just as available today as it was then.

Gardener—

plants so as not to injure their root systems. Drive the stakes at an angle away from the trunk for greatest support. To avoid injuring the trunk, thread wire or cable through short sections of garden hose or use other anchoring material such as rope that will not cut into the trunk. Securely anchor plants from three sides to prevent movement during normal high winds and rainy spells. Mark the support wires with bright materials to prevent accidents.

Many fallen or damaged trees and shrubs have damaged root areas. Soil should be filled around the tree is staked back into position. Firm soil around roots to eliminate air pockets and provide support. An excess of soil over the normal root area can be damaging, thus, only replace soil which has been washed or worked away from the roots.

Even though with many young plants the growing position was not disturbed, they may have been tossed severely so as to create a hollowing of the soil near the primary trunk at ground level. Where this has occurred add soil and firm.

Where root damage has occurred, some uprooted branches and foliage should be removed to compensate for the lack of roots. A general thinning type pruning should be executed at the time of reset, so as to preserve the plant's natural form. In no case should excessive amounts of pruning take place. Foliage is required to manufacture food.

Broken branches should be sawed or pruned from trees and shrubs. Always make clean, even cuts and remove only those that are necessary to remove due to damage. Where possible, cut branches back to major limbs or the main trunk, cutting flush against the limb or trunk, so as to leave as few stubs as possible. Cuts over 1 inch in diameter can be treated with an asphalt tree paint. Allow the wound to dry before applying to improve bonding between the paint and wound. Examine the coating several times the first year and reapply if the coating cracks. Splintered branches should be cut, to leave an even cut and a wound which will heal more quickly than jagged or splintered stubs.

Large branches that are too heavy to be held require three separate cuts to prevent bark stripping. The first cut is made on the lower side of the branch about 15 inches away from the trunk and one third through the branch. The second cut is made downward on top of the branch about 17 to 18 inches from the main trunk to cause the limb to split clearly between the two cuts without tearing the bark. The remaining stub is easily supported with one hand while it is cut from the tree.

Where bark injury has occurred cut away ragged edges to make a clean, smooth wound and apply asphalt tree paint.

In cases where the entire tree top has been removed it may be wise to remove the entire tree especially trees such as pine which do not normally regain their natural form. With other trees such as oak where strong, sound bottom limbs still exist, it will pay to keep the tree.

As a general rule, fertilizer should not be applied to plants which have been damaged. Until they become reestablished, fertilizer will prove to be of no major benefit and may cause possible injury to new tender feeder roots.

Lawn grasses should be freed of fallen leaves, silt, mud, and debris, which will cause a smothering of the grass. Grasses and plants which have been under water will generally drop a lot of leaves then depending on the damage to the roots may begin to regrow.

Plants which are damaged will call for careful attention through next spring. In case of dryness, damaged plants need mulching and extra watering. Plants which appear to be dying or have become weakened may be pruned back further to save them.

plants so as not to injure their root systems. Drive the stakes at an angle away from the trunk for greatest support. To avoid injuring the trunk, thread wire or cable through short sections of garden hose or use other anchoring material such as rope that will not cut into the trunk. Securely anchor plants from three sides to prevent movement during normal high winds and rainy spells. Mark the support wires with bright materials to prevent accidents.

Many fallen or damaged trees and shrubs have been filled around these root areas once the tree is staked back into position. Firm soil around roots to eliminate air pockets and provide support. An excess of soil over the normal root area can be damaging, thus, only replace soil which has been washed or worked away from the roots.

Even though with many young plants the growing position was not disturbed they may have been tossed severely so as to create a hollowing of the soil near the primary trunk at ground level. Where this has occurred add soil and water.

Where root damage has occurred, some upper branches and foliage should be removed to compensate for a lack of roots. A general thinning type pruning should be executed at the time of re-settling so as to preserve the plant's natural form. In no case should excessive amounts of pruning take place. Foliage is required to manufacture food.

Broken branches should be sawed or pruned from trees and shrubs. Always make clean, even cuts and remove only those that are necessary to remove due to damage. Where possible, cut branches back to major limbs or the main trunk, cutting flush against the limb or trunk, as to leave as few stubs as possible. Cuts over 1 inch in diameter can be treated with an asphalt tree paint. Allow the wound to dry before applying to improve bonding between the paint and wound. Examine the coating several times the first year and reapply if the coating cracks. Splinted branches should be cut, to leave an even cut and a wound which will heal more quickly than jagged or splinted stubs.

Large branches that are too heavy to be held require three separate cuts to prevent bark stripping. The first cut is made on the lower side of the branch about 15 inches away from the trunk and one third through the branch. The second cut is made downward on top of the branch about 17 to 18 inches from the main trunk to cause the limb to split clearly between the two cuts without tearing the bark. The remaining stub is easily supported with one hand while it is cut from the tree.

Where bark injury has occurred cut away ragged edges to make a clean, smooth wound and apply asphalt tree paint.

In cases where the entire tree top has been removed it may be wise to remove the entire tree especially trees such as pine which do not normally regain their natural form. With other trees such as oak where strong, sound bottom limbs still exist, it will pay to keep the tree.

As a general rule, fertilizer should not be applied to plants which have been damaged. Until they become re-established, fertilizer will prove to be of no major benefit and may cause possible injury to new tender feeder roots.

Lawn grasses should be free of fallen leaves, silt, mud, and debris, which will cause a smothering of the grass. Grasses and plants which have been under water will generally drop a lot of leaves then depending on the damage to the roots may begin to regrow.

Plants which are damaged will call for careful attention through next spring. In case of dryness, damaged plants need mulching and extra watering. Plants which appear to be dying or have become weakened may be pruned back further to save them.
